About

Christen Triche focuses her practice primarily on public finance transactions, corporate law, and mergers and acquisitions.

Prior to joining Fishman Haygood, Christen worked as a litigation associate at a Baton Rouge law firm. Her practice involved professional liability, defective design and construction, and corporate litigation. She also advised clients on estate planning and succession matters.

Christen received her law degree, cum laude, from the Paul M. Hebert Law Center at Louisiana State University (LSU) where she was a recipient of the Paul M. Hebert Scholar Award and the Dean's Scholar Award. She also served as ABA Representative for the LSU Student Bar Association. Prior to law school, Christen worked as a legislative aide in the Louisiana State Senate for four years.
