Elizabeth takes a practical and proactive approach to her practice by identifying issues early on. She offers clients well-rounded advice that not only aligns with their specific goals but incorporates legal and business strategy.

Experience

Elizabeth S. Sy's practice includes resolving conflicts through litigation in state and federal court and alternative dispute resolution. She has experience in a wide range of commercial matters, including shareholder and partnership disputes, business torts, real estate disputes, breach of contract, restrictive covenants, intellectual property, and trade secrets. She also has experience defending attorneys in professional liability matters and handling insurance coverage and environmental issues. Elizabeth is a certified mediator.

A summa cum laude graduate of Touro Law Center, Elizabeth served as editor-in-chief of the Touro Law Review, leading a staff of over 50 students. She also served as Treasurer of the Public Interest Law Organization and student co-director of the Legal Education Access Program, which supports incoming students, particularly those from underrepresented backgrounds, in building essential academic skills. She worked as a research assistant to Professors Marjorie A. Silver and Dan Subotnik, contributing to publications concerning the collaborative resolution of conflicts, spirituality and the law, and race and gender theories.

Upon graduation, Elizabeth received numerous honors, including the Dean Emeritus Howard A. Glickstein Award for Outstanding Leadership and Overall Academic Excellence, the Exemplary Contributions to the Growth of the Law Center Award, the Distinguished Writing Award for the best article written by a graduating student, and the CALI Award in Criminal Procedure. In 2019, she was honored with the Outstanding Young Alumni Award from Touro Law Center in recognition of her service to the school and her role as a mentor and role model to students.
